"New Orleans Mourning" is the first book in the Langdon series and the first that I've read. Smith's protagonist, Skip Langdon, is a New Orleans patrol officer (she becomes a detective later in the series) who gets assigned to help out on an extremely high-profile case.

New Orleans Mourning: A Gripping Police Procedural ...

The first of the Skip Langdon series set in New Orleans has Skip as a regular new cop assigned to the Homicide squad because of her connections to the murdered King of the Carnival. The plot is rife with the lives and machinations of some of the most prominent citizens and Skip as the daughter of the doctor of many of these people has somewhat of a friendship with some and is at least known to ...
