A forward operating base (FOB) is any secured forward operational level military position, commonly a military base, that is used to support strategic goals and tactical objectives. A FOB may or may not contain an airfield, hospital, machine shop, or other logistical facilities. The base may be used for an extended period of time.

Forward operating base - Wikipedia

Alien planet is one of the most rugged terrestrial Planets in the game given its very steep terrain and jagged cliffs. The extreme variation of terrain can make using wheeled rovers frustrating, as the topography varies from desert planes, to tundra, to sheer mountain cliffs. Operating battery powered VTOLs is almost mandatory. The hostile creatures make navigating the landscape an even ...
