Contradiction presented itself often while working on my 2014 book, Pete Rose: An American Dilemma. Rose didn't cooperate with the project—there was no money involved, no joint agreement. Yet he never, to my knowledge, shut anyone down, never asked anyone in his life not to speak openly with me. I spent time with Pete's eldest son, Pete ...

What, Pete Worry? - Cincinnati Magazine

Pete Rose: An American Dilemma assumes a great deal of familiarity with Rose's playing career, as it jumps around in chronology and doesn't cover every year of Rose's 24-year playing career. I was already quite familiar with Rose's career, but I wish the book had provided more context for Rose's remarkable accomplishments.
