Unfashionable: Making a Difference in the World by Being ...

"Unfashionable-unrelentingly orthodox and winsomely written-is a call to follow Christ in being so biblically different from the world that the world can once again see the attractiveness of the gospel. I hope it becomes fashionable for Christians to read and discuss Unfashionable. Reading it made me glad to be a believer."

The difference between fashionable and unfashionable socialists is not a difference of ideology. It is a difference in style, and PR savvy. Fashionable socialists have a much higher level of self-awareness. They know how to talk to "normal" people. They know, for example, that if you overuse Marxist jargon, you just come across as a crank.
