Veritas 8 Burglar alarm advice - General Discussions ...

First of all I do not have the engineers code to my alarm, I have read suggestions it can be reset by powering down but it may be locked. How do I know if it is locked or not? I can't find info on that in the manual or anywhere online. When I purchased the property an engineer came out and changed my user code and entry/exit times.

Veritas R8 Troubleshooting | ElectriciansForums.net

There are normally at least two codes needed to set the alarm. A User code and an Installer code. The default settings are usually simple like 9999 or 1234. Reconnecting the alarm to the mains should normally set off the alarm
